SUBJECT

: Invitation to Open the Senior Seminar

on 19 September

25X1A

The Senior Seminar is to open at on Sunday evening, 19 September. I would like very much if you could be there to give the opening talk. Plans call for the talk to be given about eight o'clock, after cocktails and buffet, beginning about six o'clock, for members of the Seminar and the Seminar staff. Hopefully you can also be there for cockialls and dinner. Both the social and the opening sension will be

25X1A

The Training Selection Board choice 20 officers to attend the Seminar. Most of the officers are in grade G5-15; seven are gapergrades. It appears to be a very interesting group. Your talk can be on whatever subject you think appropriate and of whatever length you choose. I would suggest one point in particular that you include: the purpose of the Seminer and the importance of serious involvement by each individual in the group.

25X1A

Unfortunately I won't be there for the opening. I will have left a few days earlier. I hope, however, that you can address the group at this opening session since your participation will contribute significantly to their initial enthusiasm and interest.
